Med-Star Billing Check Up

Take the Medical Billing Check-up Below to see why your practice may not be getting every cent you have earned.

- Is your office submitting your claims to insurance companies electronically?
- Is your practice staying up-to-date on all of your medical billing software?
- How much do you spend on annual support, clearing-houses and computer hardware to perform your medical billing and claims processing?
- What measures are in place to make sure your medical billing staff doesn't forget to submit any claims?
- Is your billing staff following-up on claims proactively every two to three weeks?
- Are you charging enough for your medical procedures?
- Are your billers promptly filing secondary and tertiary claims?
- Does your billing staff line-item post each EOB?
- Is your staff billing self-pay amounts after all insurance payments are received?
- Are your billers coordinating collection efforts with a collection agency based on your protocol?
